

Business Banking Agreement

This Agreement sets forth the terms of the Business Banking services ("Services") that AB&T ("us" and "Bank") makes available to "Customer" its customer ("you"). By applying for any Services, you agree to be bound by these terms. Your use of any Service will be additional evidence of your agreement to these terms.

1. Services. We will notify you when the Services you request will become available to you. If you request additional Services in the future, they will also be governed by this Agreement, unless we advise you otherwise.
2. Equipment & Software. You are responsible for providing and maintaining any equipment & software that is necessary for the Services, such as telephones, computers, computer software including an internet browser and internet access. You agree to use equipment & software that is compatible with our programs, systems and equipment, which we may change from time to time. We assume no responsibility for the defects or incompatibility of any computers or software that you use in connection with the Services, even if we have previously approved their use. WE MAKE NO WARRANTY, EXPRESS OR IMPLIED, IN LAW OR IN FACT, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO ANY IMPLIED WARRANTY OF FITNESS FOR A PARTICULAR PURPOSE OR OF MERCHANTABILITY, WITH RESPECT TO THE SERVICES, OR ANY COMPUTER PROGRAMS, EQUIPMENT OR SOFTWARE MADE AVAILABLE TO YOU.
3. Accounts. All accounts owned by you will be available for use with the Services, however not all services may be available with all accounts. If you have chosen to have access to multiple companies, you warrant that you have authorization from the parent company, subsidiaries or affiliates, to access their accounts through the Services in the same manner as your own accounts. You agree to provide us with their written authorization, if applicable, in form and substance acceptable to us, evidencing that authority, and to notify us immediately in writing of any change to that authorization.

You will need to designate certain accounts for specific purposes in connection with some of the Services. If you link more than one checking account to our wire or ACH Services, for example, you will need to specify the account from which transfers should be made.

You must appoint an individual (an "Administrator") with the authority to determine who will be authorized to use the Services on your behalf. Your Administrator can establish separate security codes each end user, as well as limits on each end user's authority to access information and conduct transactions. You assume sole responsibility for the actions of your Administrator, the authority he or she gives others to act on your behalf, and the actions of the persons designated by the Administrator to use the Services.

4. Fees. You agree to pay us the fees we establish for each of the Services. Refer to our commercial fee schedule for details. We will charge them directly to your accounts that use the specific services or an account that you designate the fees to be deducted. We may amend our Service pricing from time to time. Certain prices are subject to change without prior notice. Special or additional Services performed at your request will be subject to such additional terms and fees as you and we may agree. If your accounts with us are analyzed, you may be able to use your available earnings credit to offset certain Service charges. If your analyzed accounts contain funds belonging to third parties, you represent that your use of any related earnings credit is not limited by law, regulation or agreement with such third parties.

5. Access to Account Data. Some of the Services provide you with balance and other account information. Since certain information and transactions are not processed by us until after the close of our business day, some transactions may not be reflected in the system until the next banking day. Posted items may be reversed due to insufficient funds, stop payment orders, legal process, and other reasons. Certain balances also may not be subject to immediate withdrawal. We assume no responsibility for any loss arising from incomplete information or for any temporary interruption in our information system. If you are unable to access our system for any reason, please contact your banker or any one of AB&T's branches for account information and technical assistance.

6. Information Processing and Reporting. We offer a number of Services that require us to receive, process, and report information involving your accounts and transactions. We will not be responsible for determining the accuracy, timeliness or completeness of any information that you or others provide to us. We will not have a duty to interpret the content of any data transmitted to us, except to the limited extent set forth in this Agreement. Unless otherwise agreed in writing, we will not be required (by means of any security procedure or otherwise) to detect errors in the transmission or content of any information we receive from you or third parties. NOTE: Although we are not required to analysis your information, we maintain the right to review this information for various purposes, such as fraudulent activity (red flags) or suspicious activity involving your accounts or authorized users. AB&T is not responsible and will not be held liable for any of these types of activity on your account.

a. Information You Provide to Us. You assume the sole responsibility for providing us with complete and accurate information in the form and format that we require (e.g., in connection with wire and ACH transfers). We are not responsible for confirming such information, or for monitoring or refusing to process duplicate instructions by you or your agents. For example, if you give us a wire transfer instruction that is incorrect in any way, you agree that we may charge your account for the payment whether or not the error could have been detected by us. We are not obligated to detect errors in your transfer or payment instructions.

b. Your Instructions. You must accurately describe transaction beneficiaries, intermediary financial institutions, and the beneficiary's financial institution in transfer and payment instructions. If you describe any beneficiary or institution inconsistently by name and number, other institutions and we may process the transaction solely on the basis of the number, even if the number identifies a person or entity different from the named beneficiary or institution.

c. Your Review. You acknowledge that it is not possible for the Services to be totally free from operator, programming or equipment error, and that errors in processing and compiling data may occasionally occur (e.g., due to the failure of others to provide accurate information, telecommunication failures, or a breakdown in an electronic data interchange). As such, you agree to review and verify all results and to maintain adequate controls for insuring both the accuracy of data transmissions and the detection of errors. Unless otherwise required by law, our sole responsibility for any reporting errors caused by us will be to reprocess the information for the period in question and to provide corrected reports at our own expense. You agree to maintain adequate backup files of the data you submit for a reasonable period of time in order to facilitate any needed reconstruction of your transactions (e.g., in the event of a telecommunication failure).

8. User Guides and Security Procedures. We may provide you with a User ID and/or passwords (collectively, a "Security Code") to access the Services. We may also provide you with operating procedures and user guides ("User Guides") in connection with certain Services. You agree to: (a) comply with the User Guides and training procedures that we provide to you; (b) take reasonable steps to safeguard the confidentiality and security of the Security Code, the User Guide, and any other proprietary property or information we provide to you in connection with the Services; (c) closely and regularly monitor the activities of employees who access the Services; and (d) notify us immediately if you have any reason to believe the security or confidentiality required by this provision has been or may be breached. We will not be obligated to detect errors by you or others, even if we take certain actions from time to time to do so.

You agree to change the passwords you assign to your employees on a regular basis, but no less frequently than every 90 days. You agree to change your temporary passwords promptly after you are given access to the Services for the first time and whenever anyone who has had access to a Security Code is no longer employed or authorized by you to use the Services. We may require you to change your Security Code at any time. We may deny access to the Services without prior notice if we are unable to confirm (to our satisfaction) any person's authority to access the Services or if we believe such action is necessary for security reasons.

Each time you make a transfer or payment with a Service, you warrant that our security procedures are commercially reasonable (based on the normal size, type, and frequency of your transactions). Some of our Services allow you or your Administrator to set transaction limitations and establish internal controls. Your failure to set such limitations and implement such controls increases your exposure to, and responsibility for, unauthorized transactions. You agree to be bound by any transfer or payment order we receive through the Services, even if the order is not authorized by you, if it includes your Security Codes or is otherwise processed by us in accordance with our security procedures.

9. Wire Transfer Service. If you are approved for this Service, you can provide us with electronic instructions to transfer funds to third parties. You will receive a message that confirms our receipt of your wire instructions. This Service allows you to require two end users with different Security Codes to request a wire transfer before it will be sent to us to process. We encourage you to activate these controls and apply transaction limitations to end users for added security to your accounts.

10. Automated Clearing House (“ACH”) Service. If you are approved for our ACH Service, you agree to comply with the Operating Rules of the National Automated Clearing House Association (“NACHA”) (collectively, the “Rules”), as amended from time to time. You will be provided with a website link or a hard copy of the rules during your training for this service. You agree to be bound by the ACH Origination Agreement as it relates to your internal procedures for the use of this service. This Service allows you to require two end users with different Security Codes before they can submit an ACH file to us to be processed. We encourage you to activate these controls and apply transaction limitations to end users for added security to your accounts.

11. Book Transfer Service. Transfers between your deposit accounts with us are subject to the terms of your deposit agreement. You may instruct our electronic system to make transfers between your accounts at any time on any day.

12. Online Bill Payment Service. This Service allows you to obtain information about your accounts and transactions, communicate with us electronically, and make payments to others.

a. Bill Payments. You may make payments to others from one or more of your designated checking accounts with us. If you link more than one checking account to the Services, you must specify which account you wish to use in making payments.

b. Eligible Payees. We reserve the right to determine who may be a payee of online payments. You may not use the Service to pay taxes. Unless we advise you otherwise, payments may be made only to payees located in the United States.

c. Initiating Payments. To initiate a payment, you must specify the person or business you are paying, the date for processing your payment, the amount to be paid, and (if you have one) your account number with the payee. The first time you request a payment to be made to a payee, you must also specify the payee’s address and the number of the account from which the payment is to be made. We may modify the payee address to accommodate special processing requirements. We will send your payment to the payee either by transferring the funds electronically or by mailing a check to the payee.

d. Automatic Recurring Payments. You may use the bill payment function to arrange for the automatic payment of bills that have a fixed frequency and amount. Once your automatic bill payment arrangements are established, we will make the payments without further requests by you. If the payment due date for an automatic payment falls on a weekend or holiday, the payment may be made the following business day.

e. Charging Your Account. When you transmit a payment request, you authorize us to charge your designated account on the date we process the payment (e.g., the day we initiate payment by an ACH entry or pay a check). We may treat online checks with the same effect as if you had signed them. You may not stop the payment of an online check once the transaction has been posted to your account.

f. Scheduling Bill Payments. Our online system will ask you to specify a "Process Date" for each payment. Since we cannot initiate a payment by check or ACH transfer earlier than the business day following our receipt of your instruction, you may select any business day other than the current date as the Process Date. You should enter and transmit your payment instructions to us five-to-ten business days before your payment is due (without regard to any grace period). The first time you initiate a bill payment for a specific payee, you must provide us with the necessary payment information and instruction 10 business days in advance of the date you want us to initiate payment. Although we may be able to pay certain payees electronically within three business days of the Process Date, it may take longer for payments sent by mail, depending on the location of the payee and the speed of the mail. It is your responsibility to request that payments be made in such a manner that they will be received in time. You are solely responsible for any damages, such as late charges, that may be imposed as a result of your failure to identify the correct Process Date and transmit your payment instructions to us in a timely manner. To ensure that critical or time-sensitive payments are received on time, you should consider establishing Process Dates (especially for payees that will receive payments by mail) well in advance of the payment due date.

g. Canceling Bill Payments. If you make a mistake or decide to cancel a payment order you have entered in our system, you can cancel it on the same day prior to processing through the system.

13. Stop Payment Service. You may stop payment on a check by providing us with timely, complete and accurate information on: the number of the account in question; the date of the item; the item number; the payee information; and the EXACT amount of the item (dollars and cents). If any information is incomplete or incorrect, we will not be responsible for failing to stop payment on the item. Requests become effective when we confirm their receipt and have verified that the item has not been paid. From time-to-time, the on-line system may be inoperable. If that occurs, your request can be communicated to us by telephone or in writing.

14. Amending/Canceling a Transaction. Unless this Agreement or your User Guide provides otherwise, you do not have a right to cancel or amend a payment or transfer instruction (e.g., an ACH payment) once we have received it. If we attempt to reverse a transaction at your request, we assume no liability for any interest or losses that result if the reversal is not effected. Requests to cancel a transaction must state the exact amount (dollars and cents) of the transaction you wish to stop. You agree to indemnify, defend, hold harmless and reimburse us for all expenses, losses, claims, actions, proceedings and damages we incur in effecting or attempting to effect any reversal. You are solely responsible for providing notice to the receiver/beneficiary that a reversal is being transmitted and the reason for the reversal no later than the settlement date of the reversing entry.

15. Our Rejection of Transactions. We may refuse any transfer or payment instruction without cause or prior notice.

16. Notice of Returned Payments or Transfers. We may notify you electronically, in writing, by telephone, or otherwise if any funds transfer is rejected or returned (e.g., by the ACH) for any reason. We will not be obligated to credit your account with any interest, unless the return is caused by our failure to properly execute your instruction.

17. Unauthorized Transactions. We may process any payment or transfer instruction (including an amendment or cancellation instruction) that we believe is transmitted or authorized by you if we act in compliance with the security procedures (e.g., we obtain the Security Code) you and we have agreed upon for the Service. The instructions will be deemed effective as if made by you, and you will be obligated to pay us in the amount of such transactions, even though they are not transmitted or authorized by you.

We may elect to verify the authenticity or content of any instruction, as an alternative security procedure, by placing a call to any authorized signer on your account or any other person designated by you for that purpose. If we are unable to verify an instruction to our satisfaction, we may reject the instruction.

18. Transaction Limits and Safeguards. You agree not to exceed the Service transaction limits we establish from time to time for your account (e.g., in connection with ACH transactions or wire transfers). You agree that you will not allow anyone to initiate transfer or payment instructions on your behalf without proper supervision and adequate safeguards, and that you will review pending payment and transfer instructions prior to their submission to us to ensure that they are complete, accurate and properly authorized.

19. Electronic Mail/Internet. If you send us electronic mail ("e-mail"), we may not receive or review it immediately. We will have a reasonable time to act upon any e-mail request or notice, and reserve the right to reject any transaction or request received by e-mail. You acknowledge that, even though e-mail may be encrypted, we cannot ensure that it will not be intercepted or affected by the actions or omissions of others, such as third party networks or persons with access to the Internet. As such, we recommend that you not send account data or other sensitive information to us by e-mail.
